Weekly Newsletter

Happy New Year

We hope that all the children and their families enjoyed the festive period and had some lovely family time together. It was great to see and welcome back children and staff this week and we are looking forward to a wonderful half term.

Epiphany Celebration

Children celebrated the feast of the Epiphany by attending mass at St. Ambrose church today. The children celebrated the feast by developing their understanding of who the Three Wise Men were and why they brought their gifts for Jesus.

Clubs

One important page is our safeguarding page which gives plenty of advice and tips on how to keep children safe online: <https://www.st-ambrose.manchester.sch.uk/page/safeguarding/53670>

Contact Details

It is important that school has the correct and up-to-date contact details for parents and carers of children at St. Ambrose. If you have changed your phone number or email address recently, please let the school office know, so that we can contact you and share important information.

Stay and Play

Next Wednesday will see the return of 'Stay and Play' at St. Ambrose. Stay and Play is on every Wednesday, 9 am - 11 am, for 0 - 5 year olds. There is no need to book just come along and join us to have fun with your child in school.

Dodgeball

Our children were back in sporting action this week competing in a dodgeball competition. Overall, they finished 4th and came 2nd in the School games values table. Well done team.

Parents often ask, 'How can I support my child with reading?' On Page 2 are some tips to help with reading at home.

Tips For Helping Your Child to Read at Home

7 Top Tips to Support Reading at Home

Shared reading is a great way to develop children's language and communication and to boost their reading skills. Regular reading routines can offer lots of opportunities for learning during school closures.

1 Concentrate on reading quality (it isn't all about reading lots!)

Don't worry too much about the 'what' and 'how' of reading each day. Books are great—but leaflets, comics, recipes and instructions on a webpage can all be great too. Following a recipe to make some cupcakes is valuable reading. Be on the lookout for reading, wherever it is!

2 Ask your child lots of questions

All reading matters. Shared reading is about 'reading with', not just 'reading to' (even for older children). So, ask lots of 'Wh' questions, such as Who? What? When? Where? Why? Try them when talking about books: for example, 'what do you think Harry is feeling?'

3 Ask your child to make predictions about what they have read

If it is a book, look at the front cover—or the last chapter—and talk about what might happen next. Look for clues in the book and be a reading detective! For example, 'can you see the bear on the front cover? Where do you think he will go?'

4 Ask your child to summarise what they have read

When you've finished reading, talk about what happened. Acting out the things that happened in the story or describing the big idea of a chapter is really fun and maximises learning. For example, 'can you remember all the things that happened on the bear hunt?'

5 Ask your child to write about what they have read

Write, or draw pictures, from anything you've read! Big writing and pictures are even more fun. For example, use an old roll of wallpaper to make a treasure map with clues from the stories you've read together.

6 Read and discuss reading with friends or family

Make books a part of the family. Encourage your child to share them with a relative or friend, over a video call. Laugh about them when you are making meals together. For example, 'I hope the tiger doesn't come to tea today!'

7 Maintain the motivation to read

Talk about the joy of reading whenever you can. Your child is on an amazing journey to becoming a reader. Put them in the driving seat and have fun on the way! For example, 'choose your favourite story for bedtime tonight.'

Loving Our Learning

It has been another wonderful first week back at St. Ambrose and we are proud of the children and their learning. You can see more pictures of their learning on our social media pages.

Early Years loved being back in school.

Year 1 have loved working in pairs to guess the

Year 2 loved learning about giving instructions in computing.

Year 3 loved exploring the flower garden in science to observe plants in the winter.

Year 4 loved writing their version of the Epiphany as one of the Magi.

Year 5 loved coaching each other on how to convert a mixed number into a fraction.

Year 6 loved writing about inspirational women on their journey in RE.

Bernard can't wait to get back to school next week.
